

AISES Regional Conference (Region 2)

April 4-5, 2015

Travel: The closest airports to Stanford are the San Jose Airport (SJC) and the San Francisco Airport (SFO). The best ways to get to Stanford from these airports is either the CalTrain or the Super Shuttle. However, we would recommend scheduling a Super Shuttle. You can do that by going to supershuttle.com and using the code T9X58 (this is the Stanford discount code)

Lodging: We have blocked off rooms for reserve at The Hotel Aria in Mountain View which is very close to campus. The rate will be $104/night plus taxes and the rooms each have two double beds. Please call and book by March 2 to receive this rate. Just let them know you are booking under Stanford AISES. This hotel is also only 0.8 miles from the nearest CalTrain station.

If you would be interested in free transportation from The Hotel Aria, please email Kaylee Brunner at kbunner@stanford.edu to express your interest.
